

Michael Anzalone

Michael Anzalone is the Benefits Director at Ally Financial. At Ally, Michael is primarily responsible for the strategy and plan design of Ally's well-being program, several ancillary programs that naturally roll up to well-being and Ally's 401(k) plan. Michael has been with Ally for just under 5 years and prior to joining Ally, Michael spent nearly his entire career working in Employee Benefits on both Health & Welfare and Retirement Plans. Michael earned his Bachelor's Degree from LaSalle University in Philadelphia in Accounting and Marketing and also earned his CEBS designation.

